Frogger in the Time of Cholera

April 12, 2016, Common Hour
in NAB 2123
Sponsored by Student Affairs
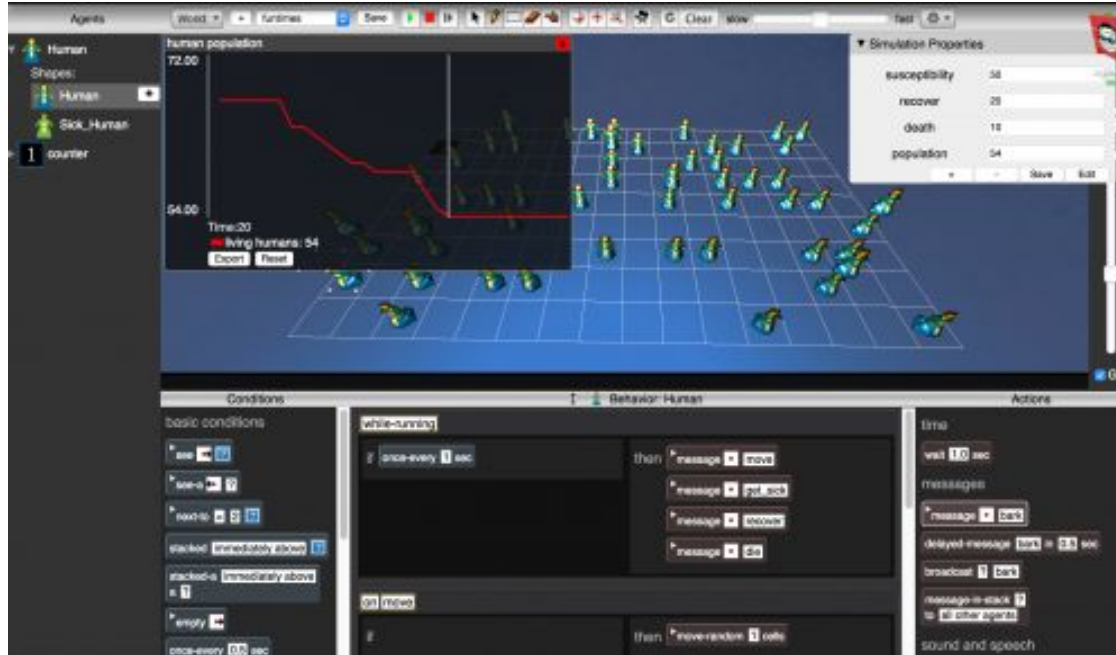

Math Computer Workshop

In this hands-on workshop we will explore the intersection of computer programming and mathematics through modeling. This quick introduction requires no prior programming experience and will expose you to the logic of programming, but also, to the idea of high level programming patterns as a means of breaking down real-world phenomena.